Empowering® Write, Read, Succeed.

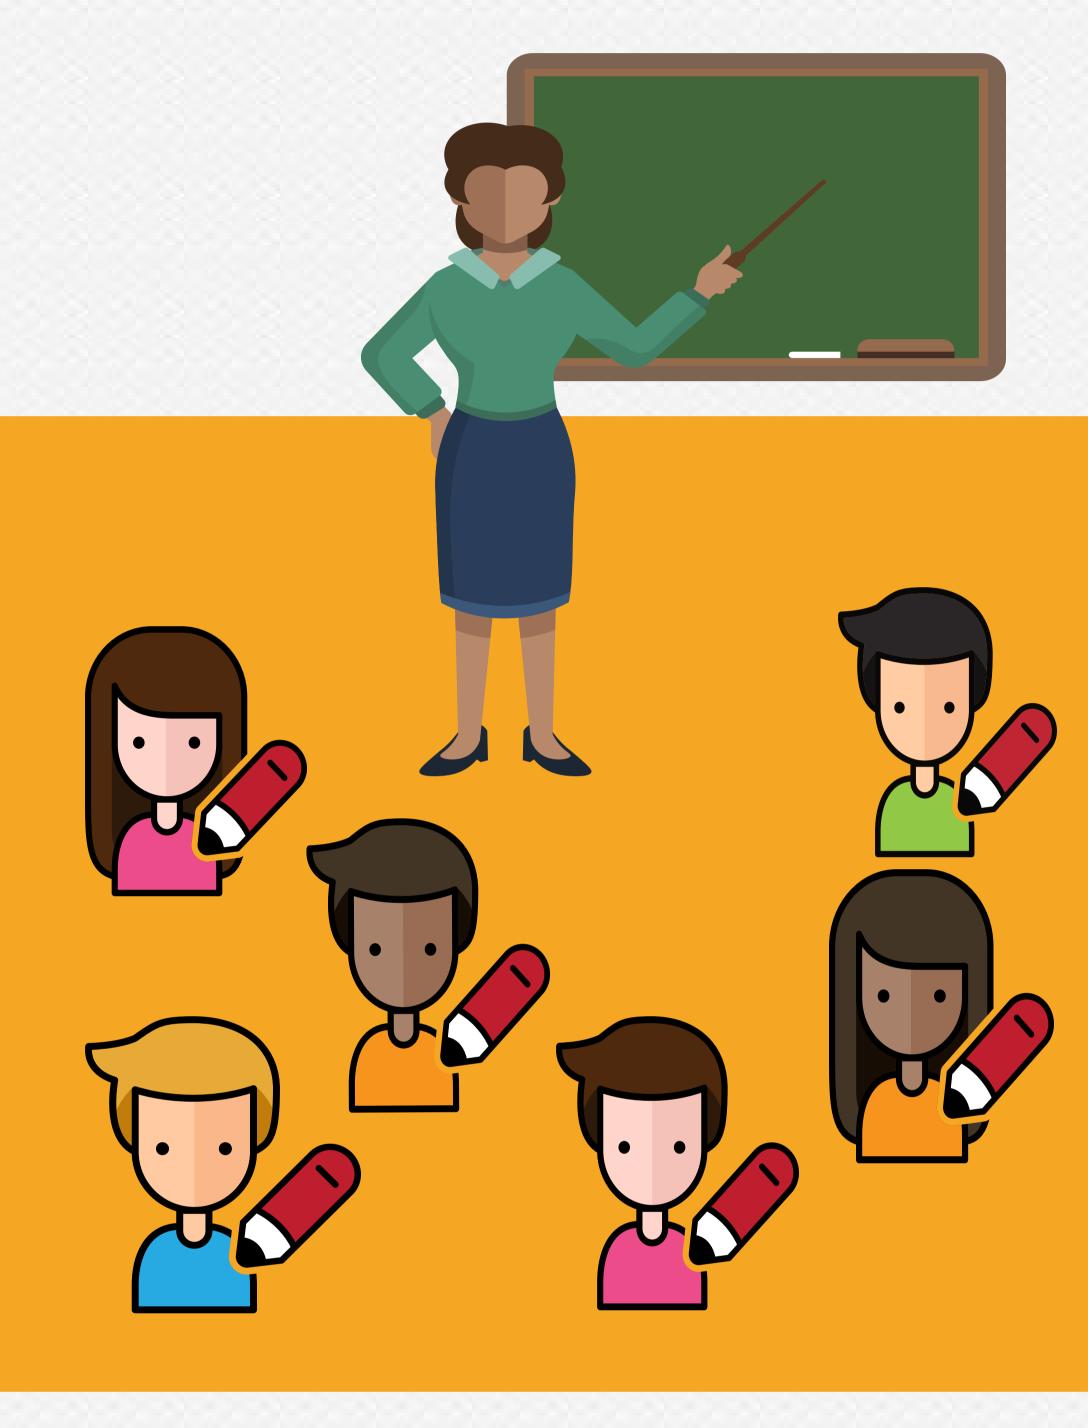

HOW to Rock the STAAR

Steps for effectively preparing your students for high-pressure testing

TO THE STATE OF TH

You've taught writing all year long and your students have shown growth in their writing.

APRIL

ready to take the STAAR Writing Assessment.

Now it's time to shift gears and get them

CONFUSING PROMPTS Will my students know what the prompt is really asking for? THE WRITING ENVIRONMENT

4- HOUR TIME LIMIT Will my students know how to manage their time for planning, writing and revising?

Will they be overwhelmed by the pressure to perform well?

26-LINE LIMIT

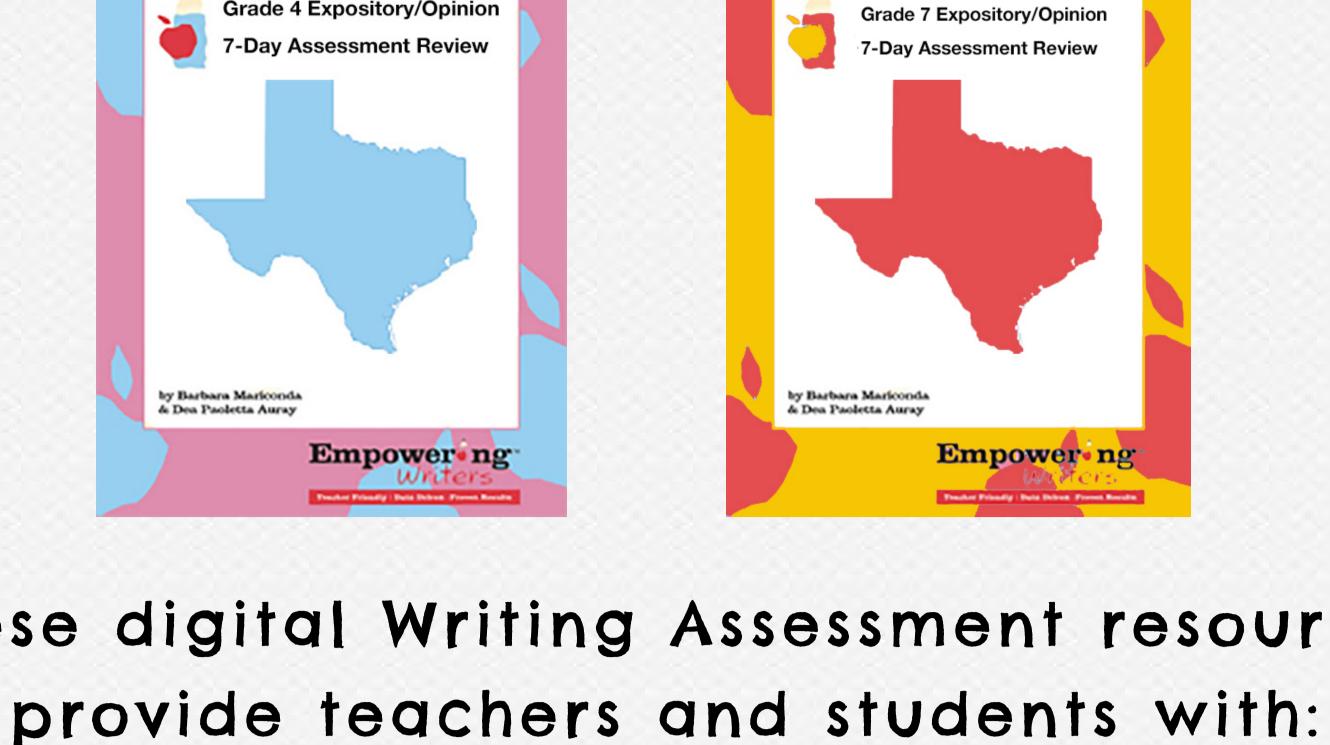

Can they demonstrate their understanding on one sheet of paper?

Relax. We've got you covered with the 7-Day Assessment Review on the HUB!

strategic test-takers.

• a comprehensive review of all of the Expository & Opinion skills necessary for success on STAAR

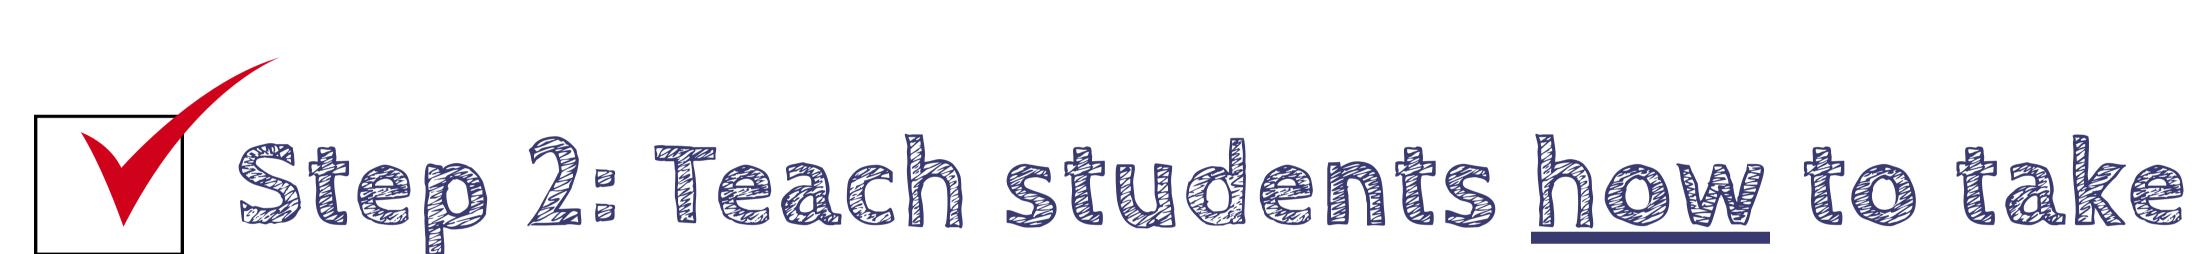

- specific strategies for identifying the givens and variables of the prompt
- proven methods for time management for planning, writing and revising decision-making strategies necessary to empower confident,

an assessment

Objective:

Teacher Background:

PRACTICE PROMPT People everywhere celebrate holidays. Each holiday has special raditions and activities. Write about your favorite holiday. Explain support for easy, step-by-step instruction. Clear objectives Review Day 7 TOPIC: Smith Hollow Farm

Today's exercise is essentially a "dry-run" of the test. This will give you a good sense of the way your stude

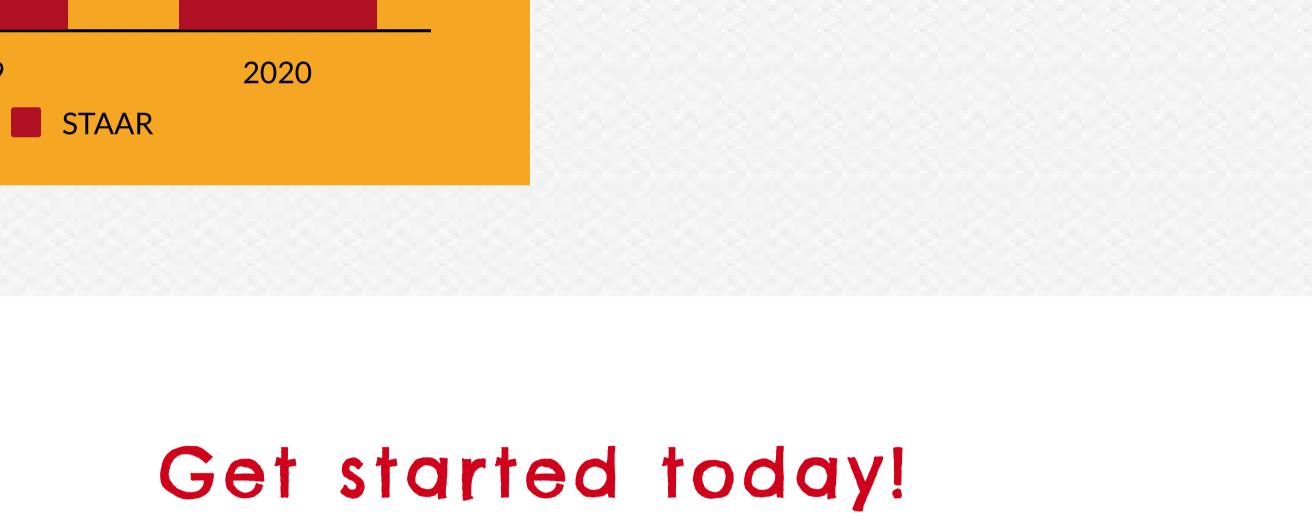

Students write to a timed prompt, independently, applying the skills and strategies taught.

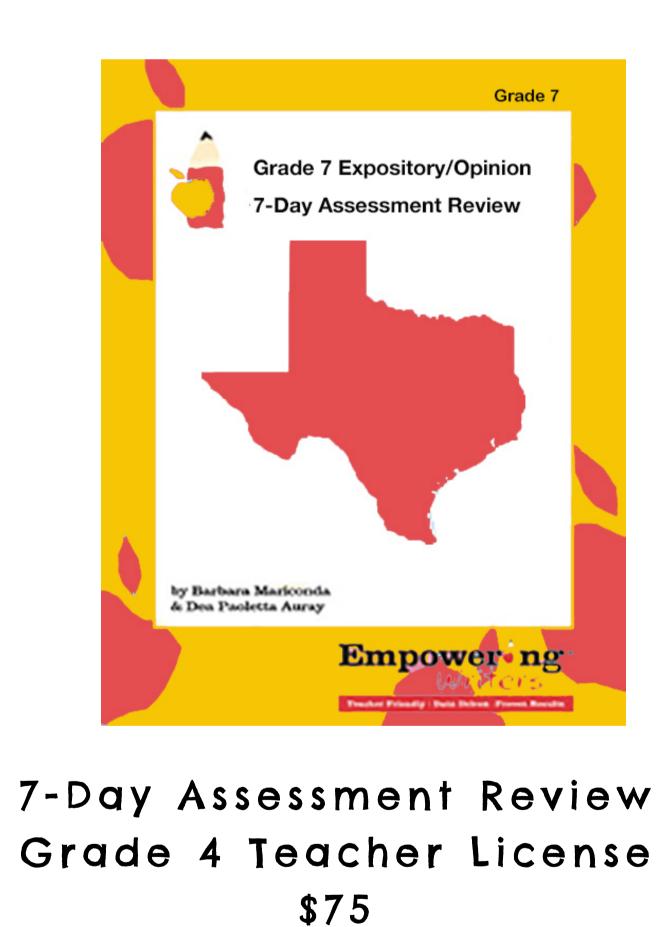

Your digital Teacher's Manual includes all of the teacher background, student pages, and teaching

$75

7-Day Assessment Review

Grade 7 Teacher License

